Deep Breathing,
Richmond, 2, 20, 93.

Mr. Melville Daniels:
Dear Sir.—When I commenced my course with you in Dramatic Art, which includes your method of deep breathing and physical culture, my chest expansion was but two (2) inches, I practiced my exercises faithfully, and at the ond of one week my expansion had increased to 5 inches. After the eighth lesson it was 74 inches, and I am rapidly gaining in weight and stipngth, I cheerfully recommend your methods, as they are all you claim for them and much more.

Yours truly, has been received. The bill to which you refer was offered by Dr. Ware, of Amherst, but has not yet become law it is commonly called here "the anti-kissing bill." It is not likely that it will pass. The ladles of the House Brose en may se and protested against its passage, and there were too many married men and bachelors in the General Assembly of Virginia to allow it to become law.

It may be scientifically unhygiente to osculate, but the chivalrous youth of Virginia will dare to battle with microbes and germs to show his develon to the fair sex.

May there never be such a restraint upon the youth and old men of the land!

This matter will reach the House calendar in ten days, if the General Laws Committee of the House will act as promptly as Roads, which it will no doubt do.

TO MARRY A COUPLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTED, CONN., February 24.—"We would like to be married," said Edwin would like to be married," said Edwin Hill, of Ansonia, who, with his fiances, Miss Jennie Pottor, also of Ansonia, had just entered St. James' Episcopal Church, late Saturday night. The rector, Rev. S. Wolcott Linsiey, with the lady members of the parish, was engaging in decorating the interior of the church in honor of Washington's birthday. The ladders were removed from the chancel, and the couple took their places under the folds of an American flag, and were married.

Rev. Linsley remarked that it was a good officen to be married under the American flag. The restor and his assistants resumed the work of decorating the edifice.

gin the marriage ceremony, the groom brought forth a large American flag and proceeded to wrap and twine it ab ut his body in beautiful folds. In explanation to the priest as to why he wished to wear the flag of the United States at his marriage, he said in unbroken English: "Me bina this country about thirty years; me make all my money in this country, now geta married, must have this flag on."

NEW PLANS OF THE HERALD

Will Have Two Field Men] Two Already Chosen for the Work. As a result of a change in methods the Religious Herald, of this city, will engage four field men, instead of one, a heretofore, and will assign to each sor particular district in the State.

The Rev. J. H. Couch, of amplin City, has just accepted one of these positions. Mr. Couch is one of the best known Baptist ministers in the State. He will devote his whole time to the work of the Herald, and hence he has resigned charge of his church in Pamplin. He will have charge of the Southside District, running from Lynchburg to Norfolk and from Richmond to the North Carolina line,

Two other field editors have yet to be chosen. The fourth will be the Rev. H. H. Street, who will have charge of what will be called the Pledmont District. My. Street is now of this city. He came here recently from Arkanses.
